SALE OF

Scotch Shorthorns

April 26, 1921.

47 Cows
3 Bulls

"Scotty" Milne

Mt. Pleasant, Iowa.

ANNOUNCEMENT

In presenting this catalogue of my first sale where all cattle were furnished by me I wish to say they are a very useful lot of cattle some twenty cows with calves at foot and a great many rebred to my Herd Bulls, Cumberland Marshal 14th, first at Des Moines and Minnesota.

And Premier Aristocrat bred by Jas. Durno and sired by Collynie Premier. I am selling this Bull for no fault only that I must reduce my herd as I only have a small farm of 140 acres.

I sure hate to sell at this time as I never saw the time when cattle could be bought worth the money like they are at this time. It is true that we have passed through a slight depression but it is over and I want to say to every young breeder in America that now is your time to buy Shorthorns and if you buy them judiciously there will never be a time of properly fed and cared for but what they will make some money.

I hereby present a special invitation to all breeders and lovers of good Shorthorns to visit my place sale day whether you buy or not.

Signed,

SCOTTY MILNE.

Guarantee

I guarantee every animal a breeder whether they are nursing calves or not and all Bulls are guaranteed breeders where they are not allowed to run with the cows and are not turned out to see how long they can live without anything to eat.

If any of the cattle I sell fail to comply with my guarantee send them back and get your money.

They will also be sold subject to the sixty day retest.

TERMS—Cash or a credit of three or six months.

MT. PLEASANT is on the main line of the C. B. & Q. railroad just six hours run from Chicago and twenty-five mlies west of Burlington.
